Eddie Axner Construction was created in March 2011 by Raymond Edward Axner Jr. (Eddie), a former co-owner of Axner Excavating, Inc. While Eddie Axner Construction is a new company name, it is stacked with years of experience and a fleet of company owned equipment. The company's experienced crews are specially trained and ready, with the most up to date equipment and technology, to handle the job quickly and efficiently the first time and always on-time. The excavation specialists at Eddie Axner Construction have years of experience bringing you excellent service for your construction needs. Our reputation for excellence speaks for itself. We are bonded, licensed and insured in California.

Our proactive working relationship with our customers is the key to our longevity. We 'partner' with our customers to meet their needs and objectives efficiently and professionally. We pride ourselves in anticipating any future situations that we can steer in a positive direction to save our customers time and money. We accomplish this through value engineering, design reviews and expertise gained from past experience.

Eddie Axner, owner of Eddie Axner Construction, has over 25 years of experience in the construction industry and has completed thousands of jobs both large and small. Using his hands on supervisory approach, Eddie oversees all projects for quality control and public safety.
